Dear Dr. Weinstein:

Enclosed with this letter please find 10 copies of the latest issue of Annals featuring your column. (I'm actually throwing an extra in, so there will be 11 copies total.)

As always, we so appreciate all you contribute to our journal and our association as a whole. If there is ever any way I can be of assistance to you, please do not hesitate to ask.

I hope warm Spring weather comes to Brooklyn soon! Everything is in bloom here in Springfield; my fruit trees are blossoming and my garden is just starting to sprout. I hope your life is filled with the beauty of the new season as well!

Take care!

Best wishes to you and yours.

Dear Dr. Weinstein:

I am enclosing a manuscript that has been submitted for publication in Annals of the American Psychological Association. I would like you to review this article.

I have enclosed a standardized review form to help you review this manuscript. It would be helpful if you would respond to those questions where they are applicable to the paper you are reviewing. Please feel free to mark on the enclosed manuscript and make any additional comments that would be helpful to the author in his/her revision process. Please clearly print or type your comments on the Review Form.

I would appreciate it if you could return the article and the survey form within 30 days in order for us to return it to the author for any necessary changes that you have suggested.

If you are unable to review this article in the time frame indicated above, please call me at (417) 823-0173, ext. 153. Thank you for your help in reviewing this manuscript. I look forward to working with you.

Dear Dr. Weinstein,

On behalf of the entire editorial staff of Annals of the American Psychotherapy Association, I would like to thank you for contributing your column to our publication. As always, your column made an excellent addition the latest issue of our journal and we look forward to featuring more of your work in the future.

I am enclosing a few copies of the journal featuring your column. Please note, I've been directed by my bosses to give our Annals authors and columnists just one complimentary copy of the journal, but I'm sneaking a few extra in for you. If you would like to purchase additional copies of this issue, you may do so at $6.00 per copy (our cost to print the journal, price includes shipping and handling costs).

Please retain a copy of this letter for your records, as it grants you permission to make reproductions of your column for use in lectures, classes, and presentations.

Again, we sincerely appreciate your contribution to Annals of the American Psychotherapy Association. If there is anything I can do for you in the future, please feel free to contact me at (800) 423-9737 or by e-mail at erica@americanpsychotherapyassociation.com.

Dear Dr. Weinstein:

Enclosed please find the Winter 2004 issue of Annals of the American Psychotherapy Association featuring your most recent column.

I also sent several copies of this issue to Arlene Weiss so she could have a record of your very thoughtful comments about her service.

I wish you and your family all the best, Dr. Weinstein. I am keeping your children in my thoughts, and will continue to do so as they so bravely dedicate themselves to serve our nation. I will keep you in my thoughts as well, as I'm sure that this is both a very proud and taxing time for you as a father.

As always, Dr. Weinstein, I extend my sincere admiration for your work with children and families. You are doing a wonderful thing with your life, and I can only imagine the impact you have had on so many. I admire this greatly, and am inspired and driven to lead my career in a direction that will allow me to help others through my work as well.

Take care,

GREETINGS OF THE SEASON

Dear Dr. Weinstein:

The American Psychotherapy Association thanks you for your service in 2002 as a member of the Editorial Advisory Board. It is through your hard work and thoughtful reviews that the Annals of the American Psychotherapy Association has become the publication it is today.

Through your dedication, the Annals has progressed from a simple four-page newsletter in 1997, to a 52-page peer-reviewed journal that provides mental health professionals with continuing education credits as well as articles and columns that cover every aspect of psychotherapy.

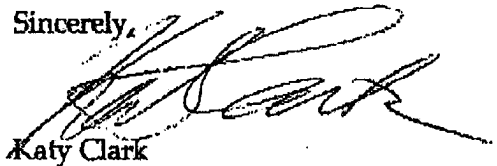

I am pleased to announce the following Editorial Advisory Board members who will be serving in 2003:

Alan Andrews, Psy.D., DCSW, DAPA
Fred H. Besthorn, Ph.D., DAPA
Peter W. Choate, M.S.W., DAPA
Caryn Coons, M.A., LPC, DAPA
Estyne Del Rio-Diaz, Ph.D., DAPA
Sam Goldstein, Ph.D., DAPA
Richard A. Griffin, Ed.D., Ph.D., Th.D., DAPA
Mark E. Hillman, Ph.D., DAPA
Debby L. Hirschhorn, Ph.D., LMHC, DAPA
Frederick MacDonald, Ph.D., DAPA
Michael Gary Meacham, Ph.D., DAPA
Brian J. McDermid, M.D., DAPA
William A. Mosier, Ed.D., PA-C, DAPA
Natalie H. Newton, Ph.D., DAPA
Irene F. Rosenberg-Javors, M.Ed., DAPA
Robert C. Schwartz, Ph.D., DAPA
Mary Kathryn Self, M.A., DAPA
Norman F. Shub, Ph.D., DAPA
Shannon D. Smith, Ph.D., PCC, DAPA
Everett K. Spees, M.D., Ph.D., D.D., S.T.D., DAPA

Karl P. Ulrich, Ph.D., D.Min., DAPA
Monty N. Weinstein, Psy.D., M.P.A., DAPA

I am excited about working with each of you in the coming year and look forward to a bright and rewarding future for the Annals in 2003. Wishing you a happy holiday season from the American Psychotherapy Association.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Katy Clark', written over a light blue horizontal line.
