Dear Mr. Mc Kendree:

I have been contacted by Dr. Monty Weinstein and asked to acquaint you with some of the cases I have worked on with him during the past several years. I am more than happy to do so and will tell you at the outset that Dr. Weinstein is by far the best expert witness I have had the pleasure of working with in the 23 years that I have been in practice. I have had the pleasure of traveling with him to various jurisdictions within the United States, among them, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, North Carolina and Indiana.

Dr. Weinstein is not only a brilliant practitioner but also a caring and sensitive human being who actually cares about his clients and their children. Dr. Weinstein's credentials never cease to amaze me and the more we work together the more I learn about the extent of his knowledge. One of my favorite anecdotes about Dr. Weinstein recalls our trip to Indiana where we had a case involving a woman who was a member of some obscure and strange religious sect that had kept her daughter away from the Father for many years. When the Father finally located her she had been the subject of some bizarre phenomena, involving, spirits, demons, etc. On cross-examination the attorney for the mother asked Dr. Weinstein if he believed in God, over my objection the judge let the question stand. Dr. Weinstein then launched into a 45-minute dissertation on phenomenology, which was brilliant and unexpected and totally devastating to the opposing side. I nearly laughed out loud as the opposing attorney sunk lower and lower into his seat wishing he had never asked the question. Needless to say, Dr. Weinstein is the type of expert that you can count on even in the most unexpected of circumstances. I heartily and enthusiastically recommend Dr. Weinstein and can sincerely say that he is the best of the best. For your information I have worked with dr. Weinstein on the following cases:

Klein v. Benigno, Sussex County Superior Court, New Jersey, Docket no. FV-19-239-98;

Cordova v. Baso Lamas, Bergen County Superior Court, New Jersey,

Docket No. Fv-181-99A (in this case he was appointed, sua sponte to supervise visitation with the opposing side);

De Ubl v. De Ubl, Massachusetts Superior Court (in my archives, docket no. Not available);

Gavrity v. Gavrity, Staten Island Family Court, Docket No. V-358-9-360/2000;

Stewart v. Stewart, Whitley Circuit Court, Indiana, Docket No. 92c-01-9805-DR-145;

Trancone v. Trancone, New Hampshire (docket no. not available);

Westerfield v. Westerfield, North Carolina, docket no. 01-CVD-953;

Again, I am and have been proud to have Dr. Weinstein as my expert in these and other cases. Your client is very lucky to have found him and will be provided with the best and most professional testimony available.

If you need any further information please fell free to contact me at the above number.

Very truly yours,

Kathleen F. Gables
