ROBERT E. GOULD, M. D. 144 EAST END AVENUE NEW YORK, NEW YORK 10028 (212) 535-7275

June 1, 1995

To Whom It May Concern:

RE: Dr. Monty N. Weinstein

I have known Dr. Weinstein professionally and personally for My work has centered on family and the past seven years. adolescent therapy so I am familiar with his work as director and founder of the Family Therapy Institute. I can attest to his superior talents and qualifications in all aspects of family therapy, individual and group therapy. I have seen a number of patients he has worked with (sometimes to prescribe medication) and have been his excellent results.

Dr. Weinstein relates extremely well with peers as well as his varied patients. He has a great deal to offer in a teaching and supervisory capacity. With his extensive experience in all aspects of family therapy, including complicated court situations involving custody disputes, I believe Dr. Weinstein would be a most welcome addition to any program that could use a truly gifted extremely dynamics in particular.

Dr. Weinstein has a high regard for ethics in the field of psychotherapy. He has shown himself to be an excellent teacher and conveyor of sophisticated theories in terms readily understandable to students. I do not hesitate to recommend him in the highest terms for a position in a program or institution that deals with his field of expertise or would like to expand to take advantage of Dr. Weinstein's special talents.

Sincerely,

Robert E. Gould, M.D.

Professor of Psychiatry, New York Medical College

Formerly, Director of Adolescent Psych., N.Y.U.-Bellevue Med. Cntr Director, Outpatient Psychiatry, Metropolitan Hosp. Cntr.

Associate Director of Family Life Div., NY Med College Past President of American Society for Adolescent Psychiatry Board Certified in Psychiatry and Life Fellow of Amer. Psych. Assn. Fellow of American Academy of Psychoanalysis